

Linda's T'ai Chi Weekly Handout October 17, 2021

Fall and Winter Schedule 2021-2022

Winter Weather

If weather predictions are true, we may have a snowy winter. I will cancel classes if the snow or ice predictions look fairly certain. Please check your email before heading out to make sure I am holding classes or not. I will email either way so you know. I usually do this the night before but sometimes I do it first thing in the morning, the day of the class if the weather forecast has shifted overnight.

It is possible, the weather report is wrong and the sun shines when it should be snowing or it is snowing when the sun should be out. I will make the best call to ensure the safety of all. Feel free to call me as well at 360-389-5754 to check on the status of class. I know each of you will use your own judgment as what is safe for you and the conditions where you live.

Change of Schedule over the winter holidays

I do take some time off over the winter holidays to rest, restore and to enjoy the spirit of the season so here is the schedule for November and December 2021.

There are no classes Thanksgiving Day November 25 through to December 5, 2021.

Classes resume Monday December 6, 2021 at 5:15 at St James Presbyterian Church and continue until Thursday December 16, 2021 at Hillcrest. All classes will meet on December 16 at Hillcrest Church.

No classes December 20, 2021 through to January 2, 2022.

Classes resume Monday January 3, 2022 at 5:15 PM at St James Presbyterian Church in Fairhaven.

I am hard at work on my traditional Holiday Letters that I have been writing each year since the inception of Linda's T'ai Chi. I do hope you find some pleasure in my musings.

We have students from all around the US, Canada, England and Japan. We have students who call Bellingham home but in fact share home in other places around the world. Please enjoy this travelogue of Fall Winter Images in Bellingham, Vancouver, BC, Oregon, Virginia, Japan, England, South Korea and New York City. I sure hope I did not miss anyone but please let me know. We begin our journey in Bellingham at Lake Whatcom.
